

Exhibit A

Hello Johnathon and Karen,

We received the note left on the rental car my wife is driving while her car is being repaired. It is not often we do leave a car parked in front of your home overnight but forgot to move it yesterday. I (Frank) do park my classic and my SUV in front of your home from time to time for a short period while cutting the grass and then move them back.

I recall a time in the past when our babysitter was with our children and you asked her to move her car when we were not home, which I did not say anything about the situation although was not necessary. You have also had functions in the past with guests that have parked in front of our home and have had no issue with it.

Normally I would ignore such a small issue, however your note with a capital letters and underlining was rude in context so I find the need to respond.

For the record, street parking is not regulated by the homeowner how resides in front of the street. Also, we live in the neighborhood that allows for parking only on one side of the street so having cars in front of your home should be expected from time to time. We have not been habitual in parking an extended period or occupying space needed by you or your family.

In the future, please note that if you have issue with a car parked in front of your home, I am sorry, but it is public domain. Should you need to park in front of our home you are more than welcome to do so, especially if you are hosting people at your home.

Please do not ask us to move the cars, and we will also make an effort not to park in front of your home.

FJK

Can you PLEASE
Park your Cars
in front of your House
Thank you!

Exhibit B

First of all, who the FUCK ARE YOU CALLING RUDE????????????????! I've been nothing but cordial and nice to you since you've moved to my neighborhood 2 years ago. YOU'RE THE FUCKING RUDE ONE!

We have been living in our home for 13 YEARS NOW and we have NEVER had a problem with any of our neighbors until you moved next door! If you choose to park your vehicle in front of someone's home for multiple days on end. The right thing to do is to send a note or message and say "hey I need to park my car in front of your place for a few days" just wanted to let you know" I'm having car trouble or whatever the case.

For example: My neighbors across the street said " Hey Jonathan our drive way is being done for the next week or so, just wanted to let you know and ask if it's ok if we park out front of your house. Just wanted to give you a heads up."

Example #2: Hey Jonathan, I'm having some people over this weekend at my house and we may need to park in front of your house on Saturday just an FYI it's my Birthday Party"

These are 2 different notes that we have received from our neighbors!

Do you see how that works? ITS CALLED BEING FUCKING CONSIDERATE OF PEOPLE AND THEIR PROPERTY. Yes, the street is public! But have some fucking respect for your neighbors... That's the unwritten rule!

That you don't seem to fucking get! Maybe in Dearborn you just do what the fuck you want but this isn't Dearborn and you're fucking with the wrong one! TRUST ME!

Let me show you how fucking rude you are! Not ONCE during your construction that you had going on did you say "Hey we're going to be having some work done and our guys may be parking in front of your house.... Just wanted to give you and fyi" YOU DON'T OWN THE FUCKING STREET... Those trucks and vans not only parked in front of our house for weeks on end.. But your fucking workers left cigarette butts, trash and condom wrappers on the fucking curb! Not to mention how they fucking trampled my grass every day for a 2 weeks in a row!

That shit went on 2 fucking months and I didn't say a word! I'M FUCKING SICK OF IT!
